

Marmosets in our Midst

At the Wisconsin National Primate Research Center

Visit the Wisconsin National Primate Research Center's Learning Lobby just two blocks south of Union South. View a family of marmosets, try hands-on activities, and learn about research and animal care.

Make sure you have the opportunity to use restrooms before you come to the Primate Center. There are no public restrooms at the Primate Center!

Contact Information at the Primate Center:

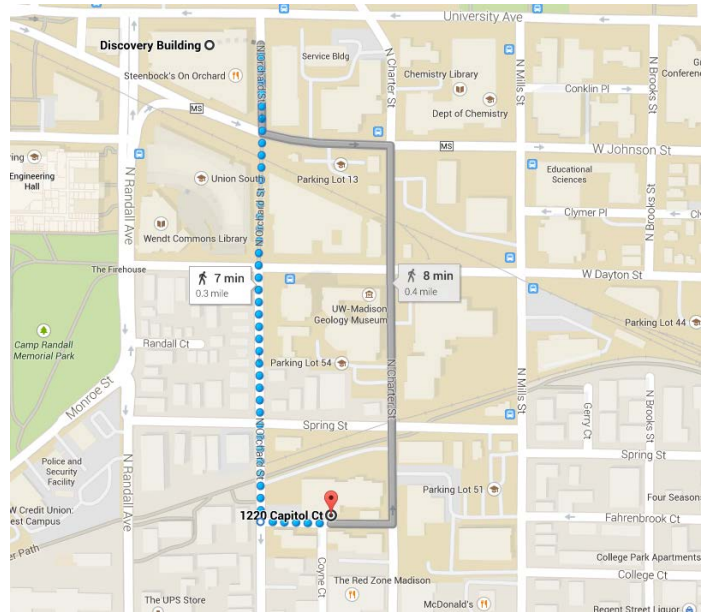

If you have any questions before your visit, please contact:

Jordana Lenon

(608) 225-6482 (mobile)

Directions to the Wisconsin National Primate Research Center:

1. Walk south down Orchard St.
2. Turn left on Capitol Court, across from the giant satellite dish.
3. Walk halfway down Capitol Court and you will see the main entrance on your left.
4. When you arrive, your host will be waiting in the lobby to let you in.
5. If you are not met by your host (Jordana or another staff member) please call 608-263-3500.

Map to Primate Center

Main Entrance

