GREETINGS FROM CHANCELLOR BLANK

On behalf of the entire University of Wisconsin–Madison community, thank you for choosing to visit our bustling and beautiful campus. We hope you have a great time while you are here and will carry fond memories with you when you depart.

Everyone should be able to find something here to enjoy. Your explorations might range from nanoscale engineering to the wonders of the universe. Our theaters and galleries showcase the finest in fine arts. You can cheer on our student athletes or take in a sunset along the lakeshore. High-tech labs, peaceful gardens, and historic landmarks add to UW–Madison’s unique character, which I’m confident you will find appealing.

There are thousands of Badgers studying, teaching, and providing vital services to enable us to fulfill our mission of education, research, and service. While this guide will help you choose the memorable places you’ll visit, we hope the people here leave you with an equally lasting impression.

On, Wisconsin!

Rebecca Blank

PROSPECTIVE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT VISITS

visitbucky.wisc.edu

Prospective undergraduate visits provide students and families with an opportunity to explore UW–Madison and its resources with the guidance of a student tour guide and an admissions counselor. Half-day group visits include an information session, campus tour, and the opportunity to visit a class and meet with an academic advisor. Please register at least two weeks in advance at visitbucky.wisc.edu or call 608-262-3318.

CUSTOMIZED GROUP VISITS

info.wisc.edu/campus-tours

Customized group visits are offered for groups of all ages and areas of interest. The UW–Madison Campus Visit Program can recommend attractions, build a tour itinerary, and provide your group with tour guides. Schedule your visit by calling 608-265-9500.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

transportation.wisc.edu

Hourly temporary parking options are available on campus. See the map in this visitor guide for ramp locations and meters. For up-to-date parking availability, stop by Transportation Services at 21 N. Park Street, call 608-263-6666, or visit their website.

PARKING IN THE CITY OF MADISON

cityofmadison.com/parkingutility

City of Madison hourly parking ramps are available near the east end of campus located at N. Lake Street and N. Francis Street. For a complete list of city-operated parking options, including garages, lots, and rates, please visit the City of Madison website.

EXPLORE MADISON

visitmadison.com

Madison is a vibrant capital city often named one of the nation's finest communities. For additional information on attractions, dining, and lodging, contact the Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau at 800-373-6376 or visitmadison.com.

POPULAR DESTINATIONS

BASCOM HILL HISTORIC DISTRICT

The Bascom Hill Historic District is comprised of UW–Madison’s oldest campus buildings, including Bascom Hall, North Hall, and South Hall. Learn more about the area’s rich history by reading the 12 plaques, visiting the Abraham Lincoln Statue, or scheduling a Bascom Hill tour by calling 608-265-9500.

KOHL CENTER

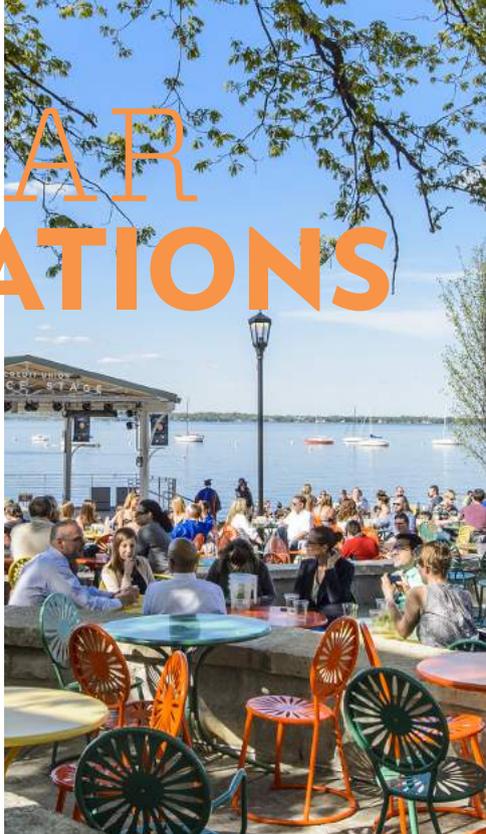

uwbadgers.com

Opened in 1998, the Kohl Center is home to the UW men’s and women’s basketball teams and the men’s hockey team. Additionally, the Kohl Center serves as a venue for state tournaments, concerts, and university events. Visit the building’s public spaces by entering Gate B from 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. or schedule a 45-minute tour.

CAMP RANDALL STADIUM

uwbadgers.com

Home to the UW football team, Camp Randall Stadium comes alive when more than 80,000 Badger fans gather for each football game. Explore the Selig Hall of Champions for great moments in Badger history or stroll through the outdoor Wisconsin Athletics Hall of Fame plaza next door.

BABCOCK HALL

babcockhalldairystore.wisc.edu

The Babcock Hall Dairy Store is an ice cream shop, retail store, and small dining room serving breakfast and lunch, and offers dairy products (milk, cheese, and ice cream) made in-house. Visit the observation deck to view the dairy plant, which is open to the public for self-guided tours.

HENRY VILAS ZOO

vilaszoo.org

Located just south of campus, Dane County's Henry Vilas Zoo is an admission-free, community sponsored zoo and serves as a leader in animal care, sustainability, and conservation education. The zoo is open daily from 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

MONONA TERRACE COMMUNITY AND CONVENTION CENTER

mononaterrace.com

Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center opened its doors in 1997 after 60 years of deliberation and has continued to be an essential destination for Madisonians and visitors alike. First designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in 1938, today nearly 390,000 people visit the facility every year for community gatherings, social events, conventions, and meetings.

MEMORIAL UNION

union.wisc.edu

No campus visit is complete without stopping by the Memorial Union. Located on picturesque Lake Mendota, it features the iconic Terrace and year-round recreational, cultural, educational, and social opportunities. Stop by the Memorial Union for a bratwurst and experiences for a lifetime.

UNION SOUTH

union.wisc.edu

Union South serves as a popular campus social center. This modern southern campus hub features multiple dining options, recreational opportunities, studying and gathering spaces, a state-of-the-art movie theater, and boutique hotel.

STATE STREET

visitdowntownmadison.com

Connecting the UW-Madison campus to the State Capitol, State Street is a pedestrian-friendly mall lined with shops, galleries, restaurants, museums, and cultural destinations.

WISCONSIN STATE CAPITOL BUILDING

tours.wisconsin.gov

The Wisconsin State Capitol serves as the centerpiece to the Capitol Square and the city of Madison. Free tours are offered daily. Groups of 10 or more can make a reservation online or by calling 608-266-0382.

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES

CHAZEN MUSEUM OF ART

chazen.wisc.edu

Home to the second-largest collection of art in Wisconsin, the Chazen Museum of Art contains more than 20,000 works, including paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs, and decorative arts. Exhibits frequently change and tours are available throughout the year. Admission is free.

GEOLOGY MUSEUM

geologymuseum.org

While at the Geology Museum, located inside Weeks Hall, learn about the rich geological history of Wisconsin and discover the ancient sea creatures who once called this state home.

physics.wisc.edu/ingersollmuseum

Established in 1918, the L.R. Ingersoll Physics Museum inside Chamberlin Hall offers hands-on exhibits and instruments ranging from mechanics to modern physics, all in a kid-friendly environment.

PUBLIC ART AT UW-MADISON

publicart.wisc.edu

From formal gallery and museum settings to outdoor spaces and within university buildings, art can be found across campus. Visit the Public Art website to learn more about UW-Madison's prominent sculptures, murals, monuments, and mixed media objects located in public spaces.

Self-guided tours, group visits, concerts, and other programming are offered throughout the year.

MADISON AREA

LAKESHORE NATURE PRESERVE

lakeshorepreserve.wisc.edu

Lakeshore Nature Preserve is an outdoor teaching and research facility sheltering significant plant and animal communities. It includes 300 acres of woods, wetlands, open fields, restored prairie/savanna, four miles of shoreline, and 12 miles of walking trails. The Howard M. Temin Lakeshore Path extends from the Memorial Union, past Picnic Point, and ends at Oxford Road in Shorewood Hills.

For thousands of years, Native Americans have lived along the shores of Lake Mendota. Within the Preserve are examples of ancient earthen mounds used for burials and ceremonies. Near Willow Creek is a group of effigy style mounds. Other mound groups can be found on Observatory Hill, Picnic Point, and at Eagle Heights.
